DONINGTON ON BAIN CIRCULAR

A circular walk from the Lincolnshire village of Donington on Bain, that rises gently to a ridge with views over the mix of arable and pastoral farming in the Lincolnshire Wolds.

A short way off the track, lie the remains of the RAF Stenigot radar station. The final section follows the Viking Way from the Humber Bridge to Oakham.

Directions

Terrain:

The paths are mostly wide and easily walked, though muddy after rain. The short road sections are very quiet, with little traffic.
